Distribution

Update Magazine 2016

Update magazine has a distribution of 2,700. Readers are generally business owners and managers within the Canterbury region.

Membership of the Canterbury Employers' Chamber of Commerce is diverse – although 65% of member organisations have less than ten staff, a large proportion of Canterbury's bigger businesses also receive the magazine.

The magazine is also distributed into cafés, doctors, taxis and other service providers in the city.

With a growing distribution base, Update aims to provide information for all Canterbury businesses to encourage best practice throughout the region.

Advertising Specifications

and Editorial Contributions to Update Magazine

Thank-you for your inquiry regarding advertising/editorial in the Canterbury Employers' Chamber of Commerce quarterly magazine 'Update'.

Advertising

- For advertisers, we offer standard sizes and rates, which are set out in this pack.
- Advertisements must be supplied in finished format. Please note that if files are not provided to these specifications, we are not able to guarantee the quality of production.
- In accepting an advertisement, we rely on the advertiser's warranty that the advertisement complies with all relevant legislation and the Advertising Codes of Practice issued by the Advertising Standards Authority.
- We will not accept any liability arising from publication of any advertisement.
- The position and placement of advertisements is subject to content and editorial space, and at the discretion of the editor.

Format Required

- Your advertisement must be supplied in electronic, vector-based format (InDesign CS5 or Illustrator CS5), or exported as PDF or JPG formats. Files in programmes such as MS Word or Publisher won't be accepted.
- Full colour advertisements must be set to CMYK, including any links placed in your document.
- All linked files/pictures must be hi-resolution (300 dpi) to maximise the quality of production - if files are not provided in this resolution, quality of production cannot be guaranteed.
- All advertisements must be supplied at 100% final size.
- Full page advertisements must include 5mm bleed on all sides.
- All type must be converted to paths.
- Borders will not be added to the advertisements. If your advertisement requires a border, please supply on the file.
- For full colour ads, where there are any large expanses of black, we advise you to create a rich black using 40% cyan and 100% black. All black type should be set to 100K only.
- Don't use compression programmes. If the advert is over 5MB, please provide on USB.
- If emailed, the file must be less than 8MB.

We can set your advertisement for you - the actual cost incurred for this will be passed on to you. We are only able to assist you if booking is received three weeks prior to copy deadline.

Editorial

- Articles are accepted by agreement with the editor. All material is reproduced at the sole discretion of the Editor and the Canterbury Employers' Chamber of Commerce.
- Articles should be either 250 or 500 words. The editor reserves the right to edit, abbreviate, reject or withdraw any material submitted for publication. In such cases, every effort will be made to consult with the contributor in advance.
- Photographs, logos, graphics are welcomed, provided that formats fit the specifications set out above. Specifically, photos must be minimum 300dpi.
- We rely on contributors to ensure that their articles are factually and legally correct.
